HOW TO ENTER

Albany FilmFest is a juried festival of short films (and really short films) of all genres (including music videos and webisodes) from California filmmakers. Selected films will be screened for the public on the day of the festival. They will also run for at least one month following the festival on Albany's community media channels: cable TV (KALB33), and streaming on our website (<http://www.albany.ca.org>).

The festival is competitive, but welcomes all filmmakers, new and experienced. The youth category (17 and younger) will be judged separately unless you indicate otherwise. The festival is located in Albany, California, on the east side of San Francisco Bay.

Films & Fees must be received by April 15, 2011

- $20 entry fee for each film
- $5 Youth (17 and younger) entry fee for each film

Please enclose a check or money order (payable to City of Albany) for the full amount along with your film. Entry fees must be received along with Film Entries.

To submit your film:

1. Complete the Entry Form. (Download the form, or pick one up at the Albany Community Center, 1249 Marin Avenue, Albany, CA.)
2. Send a DVD of the film along with the Entry Form and the entry fee (see above) to the festival office. We cannot accept videotapes. (If your film is selected, we will contact you regarding a higher-quality format, if necessary.)

Please Note: By submitting this application, you are confirming that you are the rights holder of this film.
