

1

As the sun warms up,
I recall that last summer
Photographically
Skyler Baysa, 12th grade

2

Covid in the air
People biked to get outside
Keep it up, neighbors!
Amy Smolens

3

"Did you see those teeth?!"
Naked faces greet the air
Almost COVID-free
Eugenie Hsu

4

A thief approaches
Protected by the full moon
I possess myself
Joseph Heidebrecht

5

The memories
The new year, prosperity
The hope
Jocelyn, 5th grade

6

Covid is a scare.
Healthcare workers working hard.
Stay safe and wear masks.
Colin, 5th grade

7

Seclusion for all

Vaccinations bring new hope
Emerging ... hugging ...
Amy Yamashiro

8

Distancing is hard.
Hugs recalled, waved away elbows akimbo. Bump it!
Joyce McCallister

9

When the masks come off
Your face is a fresh coastline
Seabirds rush like tears
Aaron Staple

10

Can't see your cousins
Miss seeing your friends at school
Remember these times.
Olivia Kwong, 5th grade

11

Come on, follow me
You, friend are in quarantine
Don't forget your mask!
Callie M., 5th grade

12

My mom was born here
Albany faced the future
She'd be proud of us
Michael Reyes

13

Pandemic puppies
All shapes and sizes a blur
Pure joy at the park

Sarah Schroeder

14

Loud, lonely chaos
Hidden away in our hives
Now Solano buzzes
Sandy Tesch Wilkins

15

Fall zoom desk taught with spinning chair and hamster slinky.
spring patty-cake play.
Max Weintraub

16

Sore arms, warm hearts
We break free our cocoons
Hug beloved friends
Amy Neil

17

Smile with your eyes, bump elbows
Wait on the blue line
Ready for a hug?
Patricia Donaldson

18

Buzz canopy bees.
Under the legs of Achilles Trees
Silence waits for rain.
Melissa Hobbs

19

Masked people hide smiles
A new spring uncovers joy
Time to live again
Tina Guerra

20

Do you remember
The fragrance of the time before?
Then and now, the scent of dawn.
Toni Littlestone

21

Scarred world by the pandemic
Love heals our deep wounds
Spring flowers always bloom
Sherry Wang

22

There is light at the end of the tunnel. We will be there soon. Stay safe!
Sydney, 3rd grade

23

A Fauci Ouchie
Helps return to normalcy
Extroverts rejoice
Ping Fahn

24

Tai Chi with the trees
Pulling in the energy
Maskless tearful joy!
Linda Blachman

25 lavender carpet wisteria petals falling bumble bees enjoy

Wisteria Stock

26

Iris, daisies, calla lilies

Bluebells, yellow oxalis
Albany in bloom!
Ronnie Davis

27

The manzanita
After winter rain and cold Blooms with all its might Mireya Macmillan, 4th grade

28

I walk through the halls tile of red catching my eye smell of a fresh start Zora Day-Friedland, 9th grade

29

Beneath the face masks
Lie honey lungs and viper bones
Testaments of strength
Elaine Christine

30

The stillness of air
Shattered by a lone siren
Life heals beat by beat
Linda T. Lee

31

The crayon yellow dandelion declares its immortality.
Joyce Ng